

COMMUNIQUE

We wish to inform all customers of Mauritius Post and Cooperative Bank Ltd ("MPCB") and National Commercial Bank Ltd ("NCB") and the public in general that the merger of the operations of the two banks has been successfully completed on the 4th January 2016 and from now on, they operate as a single bank, MauBank Ltd ("MauBank").

We are satisfied that the transition to MauBank has been seamless and that all services of MauBank are fully operational.

We invite all our customers and the public in general to use MauBank's extended network of 36 branches and 50 ATMs to conduct their daily banking transactions. You may also visit our website on www.maubank.mu for more information regarding our services.

Kindly note that all previous account details, internet banking details, deposit certificates, cheque books and debit/credit cards issued previously to the customers of MPCB and NCB remain valid under MauBank. We will be issuing new MauBank branded debit/credit cards and cheque books to our customers subsequently.

We wish to thank all our customers and employees for their trust in our organization and for their support in making this transition successful.

We look forward to a continued and long lasting business relationship with our customers going forward and assure them of our best services at all times.
